

Chair's Message

Greetings Neighbors!

As I write this, we are all celebrating the nomination of Ketanji Brown Jackson to the Supreme Court of the United States. President Biden made his selection of the first Black woman to serve as a Justice. Let's all hope for a speedy process free of controversy.

At the same time, I am honestly in shock watching the daily updates in Ukraine. In my paid job, I manage a team of Ukrainian web developers and analysts - all who live in those cities now under attack by the Imperialist, unhinged Putin. It is hard to fathom what my colleagues and their neighbors are going through. I can only hope for their safety and that our strategy to bring an end to this aggression will work.

Colleen Hinton, our Caucus & Elections Chair, along with 1st Vice Chair Rachel Glass and I have been working to pull together plans for our 2022 Delegate Caucus. See the full article later in the newsletter. We need to fill 32 Delegate and 16 Alternate positions to fully represent the 34th so I'm counting on your participation. You can attend virtually or in person this year so it's not a huge commitment. Please consider stepping up and REGISTER your intent to run today! And while you're at it - invite a friend or neighbor!

The Washington State district maps are now approved, and this means some of our friends from Burien will be moving to the 33rd. We've appreciated the energy you've brought to our LD, and we know you'll continue to be an active member in your new LD.

It's important for you to take action right away so that you are able to participate in the upcoming Delegate Caucus for the upcoming State Convention.

If your district has changed, we'd like to make it easy for you to join your new WA Dems LD. Unfortunately, we're not able to easily determine which of you are affected, so we are sharing this simple 4-step process.

- Go to the interactive Washington State district map.
- In the upper-right, use the middle Layers Icon to switch to Amended LDs. Use Search Button and enter your address.
- Zoom out until you can see the district number on the map.
- If you are a member of the 33rd, go to their website to learn more about them. Join!

I will be reaching out to our departing PCOs and welcoming PCOs from the 11th, 33rd, 37th and 43rd. At our March meeting our PCOs will also be voting to reorganize (re-do elections) or stay as is. After this vote, redistricting will be complete. Please let me know if you have questions.

Thank you for all you do as Democrats! Hope to see you on Zoom on March 9!

Moms for Police Accountability Program - March 9

We are really excited to have Reverend Harriet Walden from Mothers for Police Accountability join us for our pre-meeting program. She will describe the work they do in the community and share information about the alarming spikes in gun violence and homicides and how they are affecting communities in Seattle (and how communities of color are affected in disproportionate ways). She will also tell us how we can help interrupt this cycle of violence, injury, and loss of life with a lens of lived experience from the BIPOC point of view. This will be another 34th Speaker Series you won't want to miss!

Committees Needing Help

- I need one person to work with Treasurer Julie and I on the 2022-2023 budget proposal. This is a very small commitment of time - 3-4 hours - and would be a big help!
- Are you comfortable using technology (Google, Slack, email, social media, other tools)? We are looking for a few helpers on the Communications and Membership & Hospitality and Resolutions committees.
- Are you interested in participating in candidate endorsement interviews? Want to help make our endorsements meeting successful? We'd love your support on the Endorsements & Resolutions committee.

Please contact the chair if you are interested.

Thank You Redistricted Burien PCOs!

A very special shout out to all the amazing Burien PCOs who have worked to get out the vote over the years. We know that you will continue to play a vital role in the 33rd Legislative District, THANK YOU for all you do and best wishes! So You Want to be a Delegate?

All You Need to Know about the 2022 Washington State Democratic Convention...

Every two years, Washington State Democrats hold a statewide convention during which our party's platform and resolution are revisited to ensure that our party represents our values, goals and objectives. This year the Convention will be comprised of 1,000 elected delegates, 500 alternate delegates, and a number of automatic delegates including the Chair and Vice-Chair of every legislative district and county organization; all members of the WA State Democratic Central Committee; Democratic Members of Congress from Washington State; and all Democratic Members of the WA State Legislature.

We need 32 Delegates and 16 Alternate Delegates from the 34th! And ANYBODY who lives in the 34th can run to be a delegate - so, we are calling on anyone interested in stepping up for this important role in shaping our State Democratic Party. This is the bread and butter of our democracy, folks - these processes are what keeps our democracy healthy. Delegates get to suggest amendments to and vote on the proposed state platform and resolutions, thereby representing all of us in the 34th and ensuring a progressive and relevant party platform.

PCOs and members of the 34th will decide who represents the 34th at our Legislative District Caucus to be held on Saturday, March 26 at 10 am. (We are proposing rules which will allow voting for several hours that day, in order to allow votes by members and PCOs who may be unable to attend the Caucus but wish to vote.) We will review and vote on these rules at our March 9th membership meeting (see the rules on our website on March 6th).

Please email the chair to join:
chair@34dems.org

In addition, we are committed to meeting our state party's affirmative action goals for representation by these delegates. We have specific goals for the number of Latino, Black, Native American, LGBTQ+, people with disabilities, and youth delegates we have at the convention. If you fall into any of these demographic groups, we would love to have you run to be a delegate! If you know of anyone who is not (yet!) a member of the 34th but could be interested in making the Democratic Party more representative of the diversity we have in Washington State, please encourage them to register to run.

If you intend to run to be a Delegate, you must register by March 21, at 5pm PST.

This year the Convention will be held Saturday, June 25 through Sunday, June 26. Delegates may attend either in person or virtually - the in-person event will be held in Tacoma, very convenient for our 34th delegates. Delegates need to let us know by April 1 whether they intend to attend in person or virtually.

Once you are elected to be a Delegate or Alternate, there will be a couple of meetings during which you will be provided with information you need to be an effective delegate. If you are interested in running but would like to hear more about it, feel free to call Colleen Hinton, Caucus & Elections Chair, at 206-676-2757, or Rachel Glass, 1st Vice Chair, at 206-763-8249. If you already know you want to jump in and run, please register by April 21st.

In Case You Missed Our Last Meeting...

Chair Carla Rogers

opened the meeting by happily relaying the fact that the school levies for Seattle and Vashon were passing. She ran down what's coming up for the 2022 election. Kim Schrier's seat in the 8th will be a high priority, and we will be working to see that newly appointed Secretary of State Steve Hobbs is elected. We will also be working for our 34th LD State Senator and our 2 Representatives.

"Join us. Make this the year that you 'turn it up'", she urged. While we are in a fight for democracy and our democratic values, the Republicans will be hosting The Big Lie co-conspirator Rudy Giuliani to be keynote speaker at an upcoming King County GOP event!

She told members that plans were under way for the 2022 Delegate Caucus is March 26th and will be held virtually. We will pick 32 Delegates and 16 Alternates to the State Convention in Tacoma on June 25th, which can be attended in person or virtually. To vote at the caucus you must be a PCO, or a member by February 25th. Also in the works is an in-person fundraiser being for July.

It appears that redistricting plan will be in effect soon, and that communication to Burien PCOs leaving us to the 33rd, and new PCOs from other LDs is under way.

Newly elected Burien City Councilperson Hugo Garcia spoke. Burien extended their eviction ban. The city is also amid a search for a new city manager. (Include and mention the LTE to the B-Town Blog). They are also seeking feedback on the best way to utilize the $10 million dollars they received from the American Rescue Plan.

King Co. Councilmember Joe McDermott addressed us. He is working on bike helmet law enforcement, which is disproportionately leveled against homeless and BIPOC persons. He is seeking to repeal the helmet requirement law and instead adopt a resolution on the value of wearing helmets with a 24-month evaluation period. King County and Seattle have spent $221,000 on safety education, which also includes distribution of helmets. He also announced that the West Seattle to Ballard Sound Transit light rail link draft environmental study has been released and there is a public comment period open now until April 28th. Find more information and comment HERE

The Speak Up Forum question asked members to convey their favorite meetup spots for future Pop-Up Socials, which have been popular as members are anxious to get together and chat.

Candidate Spotlight: Former 23-year West Seattleite, State Supreme Court Justice Mary Yu, is running for re-election. She is the first Latina/Asian and openly gay community. She expressed pride in serving on a diverse, majority female court. King Court District Judges Brian Todd, Lisa Paglisotti, and Rebecca Robertson are also looking for our endorsement. We will be doing an early endorsement of Senator Patty Murray and Steve Hobbs in either March or April.

Environment, Energy, and Land Use Caucus Co-Lead Annie Phillips reviewed the environmental bills in the legislature, and we passed an amended resolution in support of 6 bills. The caucus had previously met with Rep. Joe Fitzgibbon, who gave them a list of the bills he favored. Read it here.

We had a presentation from the 34th's Healthcare Caucus, led by Member Jen Nye, who is also the Volunteer Communications Director for Whole Washington. The caucus' goal is to convert our healthcare system to a universal non-profit, comprehensive delivery system that is without cost at point of service. She advocated for a bill in the legislature that would curb corporate health company mergers and acquisitions that decrease competition, not only rising costs but limiting access and denying specific procedures which may go against religious strictures...for example 48% of Washington hospitals are controlled by Catholic institutions which stand against abortion, gender affirmation surgery, and death with dignity. She gave several actions to take in February.

The state legislature is looking at a wholistic means of addressing the many health care bills that are introduced each session which target very specific issues without looking at the big picture. It set up a universal health care work group in 2019 that reported their proposals in 2021.

Jen is also the volunteer communications director for Whole Washington. They are gearing up for an initiative campaign to bring universal healthcare to Washington, based on Senate Bill 5204 "The Whole Washington Health Trust". Campaign director for this effort Andre Stackhouse played a video explaining the initiative and their means to collect signatures via a system of 800 Signature Captains leading small teams each collecting 500 signatures for a goal of 400,000.,

See Whole Washington's 2022 Campaign Video here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=BnBoDWytUOA>

Nick Bonazza introduced new PCO Deena Ledger (for SEA 34-3263) and gave a rundown of what PCOs will be doing this year. Starting in mid-February PCOs will be talking with voters to ID them for the Votebuilder database. Later in the year there will be popup voter registration events in conjunction with the Outreach and Equity and Social Justice Committees. He urged current PCOs to file to run for 2023/2024 in May. Speaking about redistricting, Nick noted those PCOs elected and appointed will remain in their current precinct regardless of which LD they are in. He said that the 34th was well-represented at the King County Democrats 2022 kickoff on January 30th.

New board members appointed are Deena Ledger, who will take over the Platform and LAC Committee, Gina Topp will assume the leadership of Fundraising and Events, and Soleil Lewis will be Chair of the Equity and Social Justice Committee.

February Pre-Meeting Program - The Proposed West Seattle Skylink

Our pre-meeting program was a presentation by Martin Pavel and 34th Member Martin Westerman who are advocating for a gondola car link from West Seattle to Metro and Sound Transit Light Rail Transit Systems. Urban gondola systems are being increasingly used as transit solutions in cities such as Mexico City, Singapore, Anakra, and La Paz. It is being proposed here to speed up Sound Transit access from West Seattle, which otherwise won't be in place until around 2032.

Martin Pavel

Martin Westerman

Learn more about the proposed West Seattle Skylink system HERE.

Pavel and Westerman presented arguments in favor of a gondola system: There would be fewer, smaller towers than an above-ground light rail extension; the stations would have a less intrusive footprint; the cost would be less, allowing funding to go to other Sound Transit needs; and it is purported to be in place by 2026. Compared to an underground link, a gondola system could more easily be extended to White Center and Renton.

The county has embarked on a study of this option, and interest has been expressed by other leaders as well, including Sen. Joe Nguyen and Mayor Bruce Harrell. We will see if this latest plan to "Rise Above It All" will succeed where the West Seattle to Ballard monorail project failed to get off the ground 15 years ago.

Notes from the Environmental, Energy and Land Use Caucus

State Commercial Building Code Updates:

Once every three years, the state building codes get updated. This is our chance to make a lot of progress with controlling greenhouse gases emitted from new construction. The first six months of this year are about commercial codes; the latter six are about residential. The proposed updates would be very effective in reducing GHGs from buildings, our second greatest (and most rapidly growing) source of carbon in this state.

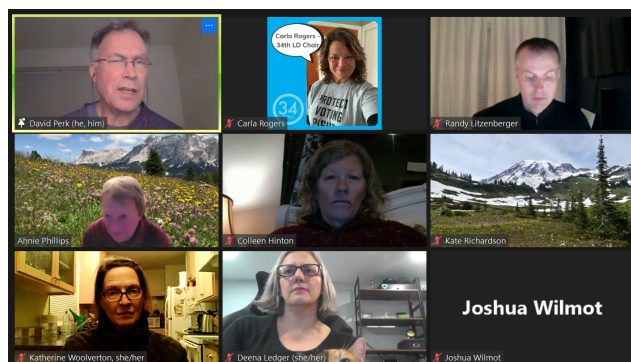

We should encourage these updates, which include heat pump space heaters/AC, heat pump water heaters, prep wiring for major electric appliances like stoves and dryers even if gas appliances will be initially installed, and programmable thermostats.

The window for comments closes March 11. For information and to send written comments HERE.

Comments on Sound Transit's draft Environmental Impact Statement for the proposed West Seattle/Ballard light rail extension:

West Seattle will benefit from a way to get to the main north-south light rail line, and voters approved the general plan (ST3) in 2016. Sound Transit (ST) has recently issued a draft Environmental Impact Study (DEIS) and will be taking public comments on it until April 28. Add your comments HERE.

The construction and the ongoing presence of the spur and three new stations will have a huge impact on our neighborhoods. The EIS describes alternate routes for the tracks, and combinations of elevated, on grade or tunnel (multi-modal) options, with comparative costs, schedules, and impacts on homes, businesses and jobs.

Because the cost and the timeline have greatly stretched since 2016 – ST now projects completion by 2032 and even later for the Ballard extension – a new idea is gaining interest. Our Environment, Energy and Land Use caucus watched a presentation on the aerial gondola in November and passed a resolution asking for a comparative study. Before our last monthly LD meeting February 9, Martin Westerman and Martin Pagel gave their presentation to the membership...See Page 6.

King County Democrats February Meeting Report

The meeting started off with the incredible news that the Winter Soiree raised $55 thousand dollars to support Democratic candidates in King County. Thank you to all of the members of the 34th who attended and donated!

Cacima Lee, of Viets for Afghans spoke about the incredible work her organization is doing to aid Afghan refugees. If you would like to volunteer to help in their effort, you can volunteer here Viets4Afghans Volunteer Sign Up Form (google.com).

The bulk of the meeting was spent on endorsement preparation.

The KCDCC passed an amendment to the endorsement rules that will limit the scope of who qualifies for an early endorsement in order to ensure a greater consideration of equity. Early endorsements must only take place in the March meeting, and must have a viable conservative opponent for federal or statewide candidates only. We also edited the candidate questionnaires to alleviate gatekeeping by utilizing yes/no questions in order to keep questionnaire completion to under an hour. All candidate questionnaires were approved by consent.

We also passed a resolution in support of adding a utility district to the Northeast area of King County.

Burien In the Process of Selecting a New City Manager

The Burien City Council has begun the process of selecting a new City Manager to replace Brian Wilson, who resigned in January. As the search progresses, the council appointed Parks, Recreation and Cultural Services Director Carolyn Hope is to assume that role on an interim basis. The search to find a permanent City Manager is expected to take four months.

Burien has a “Weak Mayor”, unlike Seattle which has a strong mayoral system. Burien PCO Nancy Kick and former Burien Councilmember Austin Bell wrote a wonderful explanation on the differences between the two methods of city governance.

Please read their piece “Burien is hiring a new City Manager – why you should care” in the B-Town Blog for a great lesson in civics. While we are losing a substantial amount of territory in Burien, the 34th LD still has a footprint in the city...and we should be familiar how it operates.

Max Vekich Confirmed to a Seat on the Federal Maritime Commission

Long-time member of the 34th District Democrats Max Vekich was sworn in as a Commissioner to the Federal Maritime Commission on February 15th, culminating a nearly 8-month process that started with his nomination by President Biden last June. He was confirmed a few days earlier by the U.S. Senate on February 10th via a roll call vote of 51 to 43, gaining three Republican votes: Dan Sullivan and Lisa Murkowski of Alaska, and Susan Collins of Maine.

Chair of the Senate Commerce Committee, Senator Maria Cantwell, said of Max as his nomination was voted out of her committee:

“Mr. Vekich knows port and shipping communities firsthand. He spent his life working in the maritime industry ... and I know he understands the importance of what a maritime economy is to the State of Washington's economy.

“The perspective and experience that Mr. Vekich will bring to this position of Commissioner is needed in this moment,” Cantwell said at the nomination hearing in October. “He has a unique career first serving as a member of the Washington Legislature, followed by a long career as a longshoreman in Grays Harbor and in Seattle. Mr. Vekich knows port and shipping communities firsthand. He spent his life working in the maritime industry, and knows the challenges faced by the maritime and intermodal transportation system. And I know he understands the importance of what a maritime economy is to the State of Washington's economy and knows how important it is to our national economy as well.”

Part of Max’s time in the Washington State Legislature as a Representative from the 35th LD overlapped with that of Cantwell, who was instrumental in getting Max nomination.

Sen. Maria Cantwell speaks at Max’s send-off on February 24th.

the interior of the country. The commission will also address the auto and rail congestion in proximity to port areas to facilitate freight mobility.

Max and his wife (and our former Chair) Marcee Stone-Vekich met within the 34th District Dems organization. They will be moving to the “other Washington” shortly for the duration of his term, which will extend to the end of June 2026.

The commission will now have a 3 to 2 majority in favor of Democrats. The issues Max wants to address are focused largely on supply chain issues. Freight traffic is not evenly spread out among the ports, particularly on the West Coast. LA/Long Beach sees more traffic than it has capacity for, while San Francisco and Seattle/Tacoma are underutilized. He envisions more cooperation with ports similar to the Seattle/Tacoma Seaport Alliance. He wants incentives in place to improve the timeliness of container movement out of port properties and out into the
